

Jack Quinby

Jack Quinby is a graduate of Lewis and Clark College. He works as a performer, educator, band leader, and music contractor. Jack performs regularly with various bands, orchestras, and traveling shows. Credits include Bob Hope, The Moody Blues, The Temptations, Natalie Cole, The Four Tops, Pat Boone, Robert Goulet, Carol Channing, The Manhattan Transfer, and Joan Rivers. Shows credits include "The Producers", "Sunset Blvd.", "42nd Street", Ice Capades, and Disney On Ice. Rod Stewart, Il Divo, and Mannheim Steamroller are some of the acts for whom Jack has contracted orchestras

Beautiful Bones, Jack's new big band CD, finished #3 on the CD Baby top seller list in its genre in 2007. With a full Hollywood style symphonic jazz orchestra, Beautiful Bones features Jack, fellow jazz trombone greats Bill Watrous, Jeff Uusitalo, and Stan Bock, and vocalist Shirley Nanette. The record has generated critical and commercial success. Videos from Beautiful Bones CD Release Concert have had more than 100,000 YouTube viewings.

Jack teaches low brass at George Fox University.